

Deyen Training Opportunity

Foundry is excited to be able to support 10 staff per centre to participate

Training Details

Through this course you will explore Canadian history through the lens of Indigenous women in four 2-2.5 hour modules filled with audio-guided presentations, videos, quizzes, and more.

The course brings learners on a journey through the 1700s to present day through sharing the history of the creation of Canada through Indigenous women's worldviews, knowledge, and lived experiences. This course is 100% online.

This course takes approximately 8-12 hours to complete and spans 7 weeks. You will have access to the course for total of 90 days. There will also be two scheduled live Zoom calls where you will be able to discuss your learnings and have an open conversation.

For more details visit the website

Registration Information

There are four cohorts available in 2024.

Staff can register for any of the four cohorts available:

- March
- June
- September
- December

Centres will decide which staff from their centre can register (max 10)

Payment and Invoicing Information

- Centres will invoice Foundry Central Office (FCO) for the registration fees for up to 10 staff per Centre after the fees have been paid
- The names of all staff registered must be sent to Foundry Central Office with the invoice

Note that invoices can be submitted to FCO at any time, and more than one invoice can be submitted if needed.

Questions? Contact:

Sydney Knox
sknox@foundrybc.ca

Rebecca White
rwhite@foundrybc.ca

