

Walk-in, Single Session Counselling Using Solution-Focused Brief Therapy: Application to Practice

Formerly Part 2 (e-learning) Spring 2025

Nov 19, 20, 21 | Day 1 + 3: 8:30 am - 12:00 pm, Day 2: 8:30am - 4:00 pm (PST)

Registration Deadline: April 15th, 2025

This training builds on foundational knowledge covered in the Walk-in, Single Session Counselling Using Solution Focused Brief Therapy: Introduction e-learning course found in the IYS Learning Centre. This course (Application to Practice) is focused on skill development through practice. Clinicians will learn how to structure single-session counselling using SFBT through didactic learning, opportunity for skill simulations and live support from facilitators. This training is a requirement for all new Foundry service providers and partners who provide walk-in counselling services at their Foundry centre.

Course Objectives:

- Describe the Foundry walk-in, single session counselling model
- Explain the key elements of a single-session and solution-focused stance
- Apply a single-session structure to their work with youth and families/caregivers
- Recognize how to apply this model when working with diverse situations and people

Intended Audience

- Clinical staff and supervisors delivering walk-in and/or single session counselling
- Masters level clinical counselling students/interns
- Service Providers

Prerequisites

Completion of WiC-SFBT: Foundations (Part 1)
